Lazare Family Tree

a primer for the novels of Elizabeth Bell

Wenona
Enslaved Dakota woman

Yves Séverin
Her French-Canadian master

Tokala
Enslaved métis man sold to Saint-Domingue

They thought he would die quickly in the sugarcane fields. Instead, he met a beautiful Yoruba woman.

Àbéní
Enslaved Yoruba woman, born in Africa

Thierry Lazare
Born 1717 France

Geneviève Lazare
Born 1714 France

Marguerite Lazare
Born 1742 France

All we have to do is outlive your current husband.

Matthieu Lazare
Born 1749 France

Jeanne Saint-Clair
Born in France

Gérard Saint-Clair
Born in France

Ìfé / Ève
Born 1775 Saint-Domingue

Gabriel Lazare
Born 1771 Saint-Domingue

Narcisse Lazare
Born 1773 Saint-Domingue

Étienne Lazare
Born 1777 Saint-Domingue

Delphine Lazare
Born 1769 Saint-Domingue

Anne Saint-Clair
Born 1791 Charleston, S.C.

His own grandparents proved amalgamation could be both beautiful and lasting.

Ekúndayò / René Lazare
Born 1789 St-Domingue

Relationship Key:

Extramarital union — Legal marriage

Rape — Child of — Siblings

elizabethbellauthor.com

Peregrine "Perry" McAllister
Born 1811 Scotland

Catherine Lazare
Born 1814 Paris, France

Joseph Lazare
Born 1812 Paris, France

Hélène Lazare
Born 1817 Charleston, S.C.

William "Liam" Conley
Born 1813 Ireland

Teresa "Tessa" Conley
Born 1816 Ireland

Edward Stratford
Born 1814 Charleston, S.C.

David McAllister
Born 1831 Charleston, S.C.

Sophie McAllister
Born 1834 Charleston, S.C.

Ian McAllister
Born 1841 Independence Rock

You have the strength of three continents inside you.

Clare Stratford
Born 1843 Charleston, S.C.

Claire-Voie Books